AMONGST the Variety of small Books published for the Instruction of Youth, there appears not to have been any of this Kind yet offered for their Amusement; and as this pleasing Method of teaching Children has been found, by Experience, to be an easy Way of leading them on in Reading, the Author has been induced, though at a considerable Expence, to publish this small HIEROGLYPHICK BIBLE, with a Design to give them an early Taste for the Holy Scriptures, and to engage them, as they may advance in Years, more earnestly and seriously in the Study of the Sacred Books of the Old and New Testaments.

The pious and early Instruction of Children, is certainly a material Part of every Parent's Duty; and Youth has at all Times been much benefited when, by Means of lively and striking Images, the most remarkable Things that exist in the World are represented to them; especially if the History of the Holy Scriptures is imprinted into them in their younger Days.

It is, above all, a great Advantage, when those Persons who have the constant Care and Inspection over young Children, and therewith gain an Ascendency or Power over such tender Minds, to guide.

P R E F A C E.

guide their Thoughts and Inclinations as they please. (I say, when these Persons are able and fit to instruct and teach the Children.) And when they possess that Capacity to excite a Desire for Knowledge, which naturally dwells in our Hearts, it is an agreeable Method to represent pleasing Figures to them: Let the proper Time never slip, when young Infants show an Inclination to receive Instruction; but don't compel Children to learn certain Tasks in certain measured Hours, for such Compulsion, or Constraint, is oftener an Obstacle than an Encouragement towards learning the necessary and useful Sciences.

To render this small Book useful and instructing, we have followed in chusing Passages from Holy Scripture the Order observed therein; beginning with the Creation, and finished with the Redemption of Mankind, interspersed with select moral Doctrines; and of all this we have quoted the most remarkable Places in the Old and New Testaments.

The whole Sentences, which give an Explanation of the Figures, are placed at the Bottom of each Page; and the Words, which are represented by Figures, are particularly distinguished in Italic. By such facilitated and pleasing Means all sensible and well-educated Mothers, Governesses, and Nurses, have it in their Power to teach and instruct even the youngest Children with proper Ideas of the most important Doctrines, and make them early acquainted with the momentous Truths in the Word of God.

HOLY SCRIPTURES.

FATHER of mercies, in thy word
What grace and glory shines !
For ever be thy name ador'd,
For these celestial lines!

Here the fair tree of knowledge grows,
And yields a free repast :
Sublimar sweets then nature knows
Invite the longing taste,

Here springs of consolation rise,
To cheer the fainting mind :
Here thirsty souls receive supplies,
And sweet refreshment find.

When guilt and terror, pain and grief,
United, rend the heart,
Here the poor sinner meets relief,
And cools the raging smart.

Here the Redeemer's gracious voice
Glad tidings spreads around ;
And life, and everlasting joys
Attend the blissful sound.

Oh, may these heav'nly pages be
My study day and night !
And still new beauties may I see,
With still-increasing light !

ST. MATTHEW, the EVANGELIST.

THIS Evangelist, we are told, was born at Nazareth, the Place where our blessed Saviour resided, and was the Son of Alpheus and Mary, Kinswoman to the blessed Virgin: His Occupation was that of a Publican, or Tax-gatherer to the Romans, an Office detested by the generality of the Jews. After his Election to the Apostleship, he continued with the rest till the Ascension of his great and beloved Master: After which, for the first eight Years at least, he preached in different Places of Judea; then travelled into several Parts preaching the Gospel, especially Ethiopia, where he suffered Martyrdom, at a City called Naddabar; but by what Kind of Death is not certainly known, though the general Opinion is that he was slain with an Halbert.

St. MARK, the EVANGELIST.

THIS Evangelist was descended from Jewish Parents, and supposed to have been converted by some of the Apostles: perhaps by St. Peter, whom he constantly attended in his Travels; but however this be, he preached in Italy and at Rome, where he wrote the Gospel which is called after his Name.—We are told by Eusebius, that he was sent by St. Peter into Egypt to preach the Gospel, and having planted a Church in Alexandria, the idolatrous Inhabitants entered it while he was performing Divine Service, and binding his feet with Cords, dragged him through the Streets to a Precipice near the Sea, leaving him there in a Prison for that Night. The next Morning they dragged him about in the same manner, 'till he expired, and afterwards burnt his mangled Body.

ST. LUKE, the EVANGELIST.

ST. Luke was born at Antioch, the Metropolis of Syria, and travelled for Improvement into several Parts of Greece and Egypt, where he became particularly skilled in Physic, which he made his Profession; and was also famous for his Dexterity in Painting. He became the inseparable Companion of St. Paul in all his Travels, and constant Fellow-labourer in the Work of the Ministry, who calls him the beloved Physician. The Time or Manner of his Death is not very well agreed on by the Ancients; but some assert, that after coming into Greece he successfully preached the Gospel, until at last a Party of Infidels opposing his Doctrines, they dragged him from the Place where he was preaching, and hung him on an Olive Tree, in the 80th, or, according to St. Jerome, in the 84th year of his Age.

St. JOHN, the EVANGELIST.

THIS beloved Disciple of our Lord was a Native of Galilee, the Son of Zebedee and Salome, and Brother of James the Great.—After the Ascension of our blessed Saviour, he applied himself to the propagating Christianity, and founded many Churches in Asia; but being accused as a Subverter of the Religion of the Empire, he was sent bound to Rome, by Order of the Emperor Domitian, and thrown into a Caldron of boiling Oil; but was taken out unhurt.—This not being sufficient to convince this cruel Emperor, or abate his Fury, he ordered him to be transported to the Island of Patmos, where he wrote his Book of Revelations. After the Death of Domitian, his Successor recalled those that had been banished, and St. John returned again to Asia, and fixed his Seat at Ephesus, till Death put an End to all his Toils and Sufferings, in the ninety-eighth Year of his Age.

DOOMSDAY; or, A Call to Judgment.

THE great Archangel's trump shall sound,
(While twice ten thousand thunders roar,)
Tear up the graves, and cleave the ground,
And make the greedy sea restore.

The greedy Sea shall yield her dead,
The Earth no more her slain conceal;
Sinners shall lift their guilty head,
And shrink to see a yawning hell.

But we, who now our Lord confess,
And faithful to the end endure;

Shall stand in Jesu's righteousness,
Stand as the Rock of Ages sure.

We, while the stars from heaven shall fall,
And mountains are on mountains hurled,
Shall stand unmov'd amidst them all,
And smile to see a burning world:

See the celestial bodies roll
In spires of smook beneath our feet!
They shrivel as a parchment-scroll!
The el'ments melt with fervent heat!

The earth and all the works therein
Dissolve, by raging flames destroyed,
While we survey the awful scene,
And mount above the fiery void.

By faith we now transcend the skies,
And on that ruin'd world look down,
By love above all height we rise,
And share the everlasting throne.

A PRAYER for the true Use of the HOLY SCRIPTURES.

Image, to build us up, and edify us into the perfect Building of thy Christ, sanctifying and increasing in us all heavenly Virtues. Grant this, O heavenly Father, for Jesus Christ's Sake. Amen.
